SATANIC ARISTOCRACY, MERITOCRACY, TRIBALISM, TECHNOCRACY, AND REVOLUTION.

The Hidden History of Social Engineering

Since before the era of Atlantis, human societies have been systematically engineered to include social classes and formal castes that separate communities. This structure has been perpetuated by a hidden power, described as a "Satanic Phoenician Empire," through its various colonies in Sumer, Ancient Egypt, Rome, and the subsequent British and Anglo-American empires. As Gurdjieff famously noted, those who believe they are the "wolves" managing the "sheep" often fail to realize that both groups are ultimately destined for the same "butcher's table".

Historically, the concepts of aristocracy and hereditary nobility originated on the battlefield. Warrior chiefs who consolidated power by defeating rivals were granted the right to rule by this hidden empire. To maintain this authority, however, they were required to educate their heirs in specific institutions, such as Eton, founded in 1438. These institutions are characterized as using traumatic and abusive methods to forge a "demonic" or psychopathic sub-personality within the future ruling class. Membership in various secret societies further intensified this psychopathy, which the empire deems necessary for total rule.

The Transition from Nobility to Meritocracy

While a ruling king once earned deference by providing security, the global social order faced a major shift during the twentieth century. The "Great War" (WWI) and the subsequent Second World War catalyzed a popular revolution against the traditional hereditary order. As a growing middle class and increased literacy led the public to question why bloodlines should supersede intelligence and talent, many surviving noble houses were forced to concede political power to the common people.

However, this transition did not truly supplant the old aristocracy. Instead, it marked a pivot toward a "meritocracy". This new system allowed the children of the middle class to compete for bureaucratic positions, yet the reins of power remained in the hands of the same elite interests. Meritocracy serves as a deceptive tool; it keeps the most ambitious and high-IQ members of the non-noble classes competing against one another for limited power, thereby reinforcing the legitimacy of the governing system while ensuring those selected are compliant with the elite's goals.

Identity Politics and the Great Reset

In the modern political landscape, nearly every major demographic group—except for one—practices explicit identity politics. Organizations like the NAACP, the ADL, and various Hispanic or Muslim advocacy groups openly network, hire their own, and advance their collective interests, which is generally viewed as a healthy exercise of ethnic solidarity.

The elite has utilized this tribalism to create the "Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity" (DIE) initiatives, which are designed to undermine traditional civilization as part of the "Great Reset". By moving away from a true meritocratic standard and favoring "special classes" based on identity or perceived victimhood, the ruling class has eroded the legitimacy of Western institutions. This allows the old aristocracy to remain in charge behind a new camouflage of social justice, with feudal-titled individuals still controlling central banks and transnational governing bodies.

The Corruption of Education and the Rise of Technocracy

A critical component of this control is the degradation of education. There is a stark contrast between a "Christian Classical humanist" education—which fosters creative reason and "Platonic ideas"—and modern positivist education. Modern schooling focuses on empiricism and computer-scored learning, which limits the development of a student's creative-mental faculties. This "gnostic empiricism" essentially outlaws higher reason, making it easier for the elite to manage a population of "zombies" who obey rules blindly and do not question the existence of a higher truth.

We are now entering an era where this control is becoming technocratic. Elon Musk and other figures suggest that artificial intelligence will eventually replace most human jobs, leading to a society governed by social credit scores and mass surveillance. In this potential future, a small number of elites would rule over a "peasant" class that receives a universal income but lacks purpose. This transition is supported by the "Rockefeller United Nations Agenda 2030," which is currently being implemented globally.

The Threat to Western Civilization and the Path of Resistance

Western civilization currently hangs by a thread, primarily centered on the battle for free speech on platforms like X (formerly Twitter). If the European Commission succeeds in censoring these digital spaces, it will become impossible to stop tyranny. In modern warfare, the primary goals are to "decapitate" leadership through assassination and to "blind" the opposition through censorship, making it easier to disarm and subjugate the population.

The current global situation is defined by the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse": the Great Reset, potential world war, starvation, and the ongoing impact of biological warfare, such as the "MRNA deathvaxx". Humanity can no longer tolerate the degradation of the poor or the "wicked policies" of neo-conservatives.

To counter this "Satanic Evil," individuals must look inward. The alchemical process of "V.I.T.R.I.O.L." (Visita Interiora Terrae Rectificando Invenies Occultum Lapidem) involves descending into the "interior of the earth" to find the "hidden stone" or the soul. By using "Energy Enhancement Meditation," individuals can transmute internal demons, ground negative energies, and reach a state of "Samadhi" or "Samyama". This spiritual practice is presented as the only way to find the "Soul Path" and overcome the influence of the satanic aristocracy.

Conclusion and Resources for Further Study

Humanity is at a crossroads: we will either be enslaved by a technocratic elite or experience a profound social and spiritual upheaval. To support this resistance and achieve self-realization, several resources and courses are available:

- Energy Enhancement Video Courses: A multi-level program designed to remove energy blockages, gain infinite energy from the chakras, and access "Quantum Immortality".
- The "Against Satanism" Series: A twelve-volume occulted history of the world.
- Mind Control Black Assassins: An eleven-volume series on the history of psychological warfare.
- Satanic Spiritual Movie Reviews: Analyses of media through the lens of AI and transhumanism.
- Student Reports: Documentation of "Spiritual Warriors" like Yuko Sato and Starlight who have completed the meditation path.

Ultimately, the goal is to establish a fraternal order of sovereign nation-states rooted in the recognition of each individual as being made in the "noëtic image of the Creator". Only through this realization and the development of creative knowledge can humanity master the challenges of the current age.
